Volunteer for ARRT

Build Exams and Assessments

ARRT is always looking for volunteers from the profession to help out with a variety of things. You can volunteer:

- As an Item Writer
- On an Examination Committee
- On a Practice Analysis Advisory Committee
- Special Projects Committees

Volunteering is an excellent way to develop professionally and add a respected activity to your resume. Make an important contribution to your profession and learn first-hand how ARRT serves the medical community.

In order to volunteer, you must be certified and registered in the discipline, and actively working/teaching in the medical imaging or radiation therapy field.
